Individual Giving After the 2017 federal tax law changes, tracking the level of individual giving in Ohio is more difficult because, as anticipated, many fewer Ohioans itemized deductions in their federal tax returns, from which we gather info on individual giving. About 310,000 Ohioans (5.5% of returns filed) reported charitable contributions in 2018 compared to the 1,145,950 (24%) reporting the same in 2017. These returns reported about $4 billion in donations compared to $6.4 billion in 2017.
